- Children will have the opportunity to showcase their talents once again this year with the highly anticipated return of Bradfield's Got Talent!
- Children from across the whole school are welcome to take part. All they need to do is complete one of the competition entry forms and return it to school. The deadline for entries is Monday 15th June.
- Last year, we enjoyed performances from dancers, singers, instrumentalists, magicians, comedians and gymnasts. What talents will entertain us all this year?
- Heats will take place during school time on Wednesday 17th June, Thursday 18th June and Friday 26th June. The final will take place on Friday 3rd July during the FOBS Summer Fair.

The Rules!

- Acts will need to have rehearsed prior to performing and feel confident enough to appear in front of an audience.
- All acts will need to indicate their specific music choice (if required). They will need to bring any equipment needed (costumes, props etc.)
- Please bear in mind space the performances will take place in. All heats will be in the school hall.
- Children are only allowed to sign up to perform in one act.
- There will be a maximum time limit of 3 minutes for each act.
- Finalists must be prepared to perform again after school on Friday 3rd July at the FOBS Summer Fair
- Voting to go through to the finals will be on the basis of the most votes cast by the children. (1 vote person)
- Voting for the overall winner/s will be decided by the most votes cast for an individual act.

Enrichment Day

Year 4 children were invited to attend an enrichment day at St Joseph's College, Ipswich, alongside children from other local cluster schools. They enjoyed a wonderful day, taking part in a range of activities including science, art, engineering and sports.
